The News.

Both Houses of Congress are again in full debate on the Kansas question. The latest attempt to settle the difficulty, by bribing the People of Kansas, with a large Land Grant, to vote for the Lecompton Swindle, is deservedly denounced by leading men of all parties.

The Fort Snelling purchase turns out to have been a political job, and the Secretary of War is strongly censured for his share in the transaction.

The Election for Directors of the Southern Michigan Rail Road, yesterday, resulted in the success of the Litchfield over the Jarvis ticket, by a vote of five to one. Geo. Bliss was unanimously elected President.

In the Legislature yesterday, the Committee to investigate the charges of corruption and bribery against Senator Chappel, of Watertown, submitted a report sustaining the charges and expulsion of the offending Senator. A minority report is to be made by Senator Cook. A variety of other business was transacted.

Some heavy forgeries on the General Government have come to light in New York, and the party implicated has been arrested.

A sharp frost at the South, on Monday night, did considerable damage to the cotton plants in Georgia and Alabama.

We have some further items about the revolutionary movements in Mexico and Chili. In the former the disease seems to have become chronic.

The New York flour market yesterday was steady and active, with fair demand. Milwaukee club is held at 95 cents to arrive. In our own market, with increased receipts, prices were well maintained; choice club bringing 97 cents, and No. 1 93@94. Freights rule very low, a vessel being taken, yesterday, at 4 cts. on wheat to Buffalo. At Chicago charters were made as low as 2½ cts. on wheat to Buffalo.

The weather, yesterday, was pleasant and Spring-like, with a fair prospect of a continuance.

A State Loan.

In another column of this paper we reprint, from the Argus and Democrat, a bill reported by a special committee to whom was referred the subjects of a state loan and the Governor's salary, which contemplates an amendment of the Constitution. The object of the proposed loan, as stated in the committee's report, is to complete the unfinished public buildings. The State, it is said, is out of funds, and must have some or suspend her public works. We see no other cause for this than republican administrations.—News of yesterday.

Very likely not; for, being blind of one eye, it is not to be expected that the News should "see" straight. But it is matter of history that as yet, the "Republicans" have not had control of our State offices, or State "administrations." Two years ago, in spite of villainous cheating by the Barstow clique, "the Republicans" elected a Governor by a close vote. But all the other State Officers, and all the rest of the State "administration," were Democrats. Last year, we improved upon this, electing our Governor, Treasurer and State Prison Commissioner; the Democrats getting the other five officers and the majority, therefore, of the State "administration." Another year, we think, we shall make it all right, and secure to this State the benefits of a Republican Administration, in all branches of the government.

As to the lack of "funds" in the Treasury, it is sufficient and significant to remark, that no suit is pending against any "Republican" State officer for moneys due the State, but there is a suit pending for some thirty-five thousand dollars—being the amount of the deficit of our late "Democratic" State Treasurer, Edward H. Janssen.

Arrival of the North Star—First Boat from Lake Superior.—The Detroit Tribune of the 27th says, the steamer North Star, Captain Sweet, very unexpectedly made her appearance at our dock this morning, having made a trip to Superior City and back, in spite of icy blockades and the detention caused by heavy storms, in about 10 ½ days.

"The Star left here on Friday, the 16th. She met with no hindrance until near Lime Kiln Island, in Sault River, which point she reached about noon on Saturday. Here her passage was disputed by a barrier of solid ice, six or eight inches thick, and extending some three quarters of a mile, through which Capt. Sweet determined to cut his way with axes, which was accomplished after a detention of about 30 hours, reaching the canal at six o'clock Sunday evening. The boat was considerably cut by the ice, and it was necessary to undergo repairs, which were effected by making a temporary dry dock of the canal.

"No ice was found in the river above the canal, nor was any seen at any point on Lake Superior. Stops were made at all ports on the Lake on the upward trip, with the single exception of Marquette, and the Star made Superior City on Tuesday, where she remained nine hours.

"Capt. Sweet's forms us that business generally in the upper country, presents a cheerless aspect, the scarcity of money being a general complaint. Mining operations, however, were very successful. At Superior City the water was 19 inches lower than the lowest mark of former seasons, and the Star was unable to get up to the dock.

"On the downward passage stops were made at all the ports. At Ontonagon a very violent storm was encountered. Snow fell to the depth of a foot. The 'Iron City,' 'Mineral Rock,' 'Lady Elgin' and 'Manhattan' all laid at Ontonagon during the storm. They were all bound up.

"At Eagle Harbor the 'Star' took on the furniture, anchors, chains, boats, etc., of the propeller 'City of Superior, which are to be transferred to the 'Northern Light,' the new propeller built in Cleveland to run in the 'Superior's' place.—The elements have pretty effectually done their work upon the ill-starred propeller, small portions of her stern and forward part being all that now remain of her.

"A large amount of copper is ready for shipment but Capt. Sweet thought it inexpedient to wait for a cargo, preferring to return and put the 'Star, on her regular trip. For the same reason, she does not extend her trip to Cleveland, the freight for that place being transferred to the 'Ocean.' She brought down 400 bbls. fish for Detroit and Toledo, taken on at Lapointe and the Sault."

A Costly Painting.—The French papers state that the Shah of Persia, who is a great amateur of Arabic caligraphy and of water-color painting, is having prepared, under his immediate and personal superintendence, a magnificent edition of Arabian Nights' Entertainments.—During the last seven years the most celebrated Persian printers have been engaged in the illustration of this work, which has already cost 300,000f., and will be a production unique of its kind.

The New Lecompton Measure.

Should the bill concocted by the traiter, English, to bribe the people of Kansas to give their consent to the adoption of the Lecompton Abomination—for that really is its design—pass Congress, what will be the consequences? That the indignant and much abused people of that Territory would reject the Lecompton Constitution, were it submitted to a fair vote by an overwhelming majority, there is not a shadow of doubt, notwithstanding the enormous price offered by the Government for their vote. But this pretention to submit the Lecompton Constitution, is but a vile trap, and in the words of the New York Tribune, "it does not submit the Lecompton Constitution to the People of Kansas at all, but merely asks them to vote for or against a proposition that the Federal Government shall give them some five millions of land for the construction of railroads through their territory. If they vote Yes, then they are to be held to have accepted the Lecompton Constitution (though Mr. English has a dozen times voted, he will be asserted, that they never did accept it), and are to be treated as in the Union under that instrument. If they vote No [to the Land Grab], then they are to be regarded as not in the Union, and not wanting to come in until an official census shall have shown that Kansas has a Federal population sufficient to entitle her to a member of Congress—that is, 93,340 now, and from 110,000 to 125,000 after 1860."

It is significant of the injustice of this proposition, that its authors admit that Kansas has a right to admission, provided that she will come in under the Lecompton yoke, but if she refuses to do this, then, behold, she cannot be admitted until it shall be officially ascertained that she contains a sufficient population to entitle her to a member of Congress! Now, if Kansas has a right to admission under the Lecompton Constitution, she has an equal right to admission under any Constitution which her people may see fit to adopt. But it is not the object of the Administration party to submit any constitution to the voice of the people. They have been routed at every point, but they will not give up the battle. They are determined to try every means within their power to cheat the People of Kansas out of their right to chose their own Constitution.—But should the obnoxious Bribe Bill pass Congress, would the people of Kansas be allowed to vote against it? This is a question which admits of serious doubt.

Would not every corrupt means within the power of the Federal Government be brought to bear against them, to prevent their having a fair vote? Would not all the border ruffian outrages of old be renewed under the encouragement of the administration, and would not the plains of Kansas again flow with the blood of its wronged citizens?

The election would be altogether in the hands of the administration party, and who can doubt the result? Listen to what the Washington correspondence of the New York Times has to say upon the chances of a fair election in such a case:

The truth of this pretension depends upon the intention of the heretofore Anti-Lecompton Democrats to have a fair election. Do they intend to secure such a one? That is doubtful.—In the first place, the control of the election is placed wholly within the power of the Executive. It will be conducted by a Board consisting of three Federal office-holders and two Republican heads of the Kansas Legislature. Now, Mr. Buchanan has just removed a man from the post of Marshal of the Territory, for the very reason that he would not connive at, and would not assist in consummating the enormous and palpable frauds attempted in Johnson and McGee Counties, in October, 1857, and actually perpetrated on Dec. 21, and Jan. 4, following. Will the President constitute the new Board fairly? Has he done anything in Kansas fairly.

It may be that the Federal army and the volunteers, and the larger army of camp followers, in Kansas, may overawe the inhabitants and prevent a conflict from the disparity of force; but the terms under which the election is ordered, are eminently well calculated to produce sanguinary tumults. They are likely to arise under grave, well founded doubts of what are the election laws of Kansas. The District Attorney, who is ex officio one of the Board of Election Commissioners, gave an opinion last Fall which, if enforced, would have disfranchised nearly the whole body of Free State inhabitants. He will certainly renew that opinion, especially when he remembers that Gov. Walker and Secretary Stanton were removed for opposing it, among other causes. But there is yet a more serious source of trouble. The Lecompton Constitution virtually abolished the Territorial Legislature, providing that none of its laws should go into effect if that Constitution were adopted by Congress. Does not the proposition take effect upon the conditional acceptance of the Constitution? I have no doubt that it will be so decided. In that case the old and offensive statutes of election will be restored, under which the Free-State men so often refused to vote. Those questions are likely to produce fearful confusion and disorder

Leopold Lathrop.—Our community were startled last evening by the intelligence of the death of Leopold Lathrop, a son of Chancellor Lathrop of the University. He died at the Water-Cure, at about 5 o'clock P. M., on yesterday.

The deceased was very generally known to our citizens, as a young man gifted with intellectual powers far above the ordinary range. Full of activity and wit, he was always an esteemed companion among those with whom he associated. He was born in Clinton, N. Y., in August 1835. After the usual preparatory studies he entered the Wisconsin State University, and subsequently continued his studies at the Michigan State University. On his return he studied law in the office of Messrs. Orton, Atwood & Orton of this city, and was admitted as an attorney at the age of 18. After practicing a few months here, he removed to Nebraska, with the intention of making that his future home, and of building up a reputation there, and growing with the growth of that new commonwealth.

He was engaged in the practice of the law there, and also edited a weekly newspaper at Florence. Our readers may remember some spicy as well as caustic articles from his pen, copied into these columns. While thus employed he was seized with the illness which has terminated, after more than a year of painful confinement, in his death. He was brought home some time last summer, and has since been unable to leave his room, except two or three times in a carriage. A few weeks ago he was removed to the Water Cure, not with the expectation of restoration, but with the hope that he might find some alleviation of his sufferings.

His death is a bitter affliction to his parents. It is less than a year since they were called upon to mourn the untimely death of another son, by the hand of violence, in a distant land.

The members of the Madison Bar held a meeting this morning, and adopted resolutions expressive of their sorrow and sympathy. The funeral was held at the Episcopal Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.—Madison Journal.

Lacrosse & Milwaukee R. R.—Stock held by Directors.

By the 3d Section of the act providing for the election of Directors of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Co., the Secretary of that Company was required to file with the Secretary of State, 30 days before the election, a list of the Stockholders, with the amount of stock held by each. This list has just been filed. From it we learn that the amount of stock held by each of the present Directors, is as follows:

Five Men Drowned on Muskegon Lake!—The schooner Kitty Grant, which arrived from Muskegon, on Monday evening, reports that on Sunday, the 18th inst., five men, three Norwegians and two Swedes, were capsized in a sailboat on Lake Muskegon, and all of them drowned. It seems they were beating up from the mouth of the river to the head of the Lake, against a strong N. E. wind, when they were capsized. One of them was taken out of the water before life was extinct, but died soon after. The bodies of two of the others were found, but those of the other two had not been discovered when the Kitty left. We do not learn their names, only that one was called "Norwegian Lans," who leaves a wife and two small children. —Free Dem.

A Big Safe.—We noticed yesterday afternoon a monster safe, from the Great Western Safe Manufactury of Messrs. Schumacher & Johnson, in this city, which was being hoisted up into the office of the Judge of Probate, in the 3rd story of the Free Democrat building. The size of the safe was six and a half feet in hight, by four feet five inches wide, and the weight about six thousand pounds. It was provided with one of Messrs. Schumacher & Johnson's celebrated combination locks, and the internal arrangements were extremly neat and convenient.

The Great Western Safes are now tolerably well known in this State, and the large demand upon the manufactures of late, is evidence of their increasing popularity. They have often been tried, and have invariably withstood the most severe tests.

Good News.—The music loving portions of our community will rejoice to hear that Vieuxtemps and Thalberg, contemplate soon visiting our city. Mr. Hempsted informs us that he has received a letter from them, stating that they will give two concerts here on the 18th and 21st prox. These distinguished artists, will, no doubt, here, as elsewhere meet with a hearty reception, and the public need not to be assured that the expected concerts, will be exhibitions of the rarest musical talent in the world.

Picking Ladies' Pockets.—A lady had her pocket picked day before yesterday while riding in an omnibus to the La Crosse Depot. Another lady, while standing in the depot, felt a hand in her pocket, but did not discover who it was. She called out that her pocket was picked, whereupon a young chap commenced to make fast time away from the Depot. He was overtaken by Policeman Just, but was not identified, and as nothing was found on him, he was allowed to depart.

Change of time on the Mil. & Horicon R. R.—By an advertisement it will be seen that on and after Monday next, the trains on the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. will leave this city, going West at 7 A. M. and 2 P. M., arriving at Berlin at 11:48 A. M. and 7:40 P. M. Connecting with the trains at Berlin, the company have a line of steamers running to and from all accessible points on the Fox and Wolf Rivers, and Lake Winnebago.

Social "Hop" at the Newhall.—The Social Hop at the Newhall House comes off this evening. The arrangements have all been made by the proprietors, Messrs. Kean & Rice, and will, of course, be complete. The number of tickets is limited, and those who wish to obtain them should apply without delay at the office of the Newhall House.

Removal.—The office of the Daily Wisconsin is about being removed to Furlong's block, corner of East Water and Huron streets. The accomodations in the new office, the Wisconsin says, will be far superior to those of the one it now occupies.

Sentenced.—The wife murderer, Patrick Bennett, was yesterday sentenced by Judge McArthur, in the Circuit Court, to imprisonment in the State Prison for the term of his natural life. The unfortunate man is a picture of the most wretched depravity.

Police Court Yesterday.—Jerry Mahoney was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. This was the only case before the police court yesterday.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:—Mr. Wm. E. Cramer, of the Wisconsin is respectfully requested to "keep the boys quiet," or, at least, to prevent them from throwing stones or other missiles from the Wisconsin office, at persons passing in boats on the river in the rear of said office. Casper Myers.

☞ The next sale of fine furniture which Wall, the City Auctioneer has, takes place on Friday morning, April 30th, at 10 o'clock, at the dwelling house, No. 365 Main street.

Rents—House for Sale.—J. S. Fillmore has a neat cottage house, near the residence of J. B. Cross, for exchange for good R. R. stock or mortgages. For rent, a good house, corner Clybourn and 4th Sts., at $350; also, one on Spring St. at $350; also, a small house on Van Buren St., at $10 per month. Also, a good brick house on Mason St., at $500.

Southern Commercial Convention.

The Savannah Republican has the following hit upon the Southern Commercial Convention, which is to assemble at Montgomery, Ala., on the 10th proximo:

"This convention has been meeting for some five or six consecutive years, and has passed some hundred or more resolutions, on nearly every subject under the sun, and if the first step has been taken to carry one of them into practical effect, we have yet to learn the fact. They have resolved enough in all conscience—let them set to and finish up the work they have already cut out, and then it will be full time for another convention. At least, such are our sentiments."

A Degenerate Son.—Mr. James B. Clay has written a letter to the Boston Daily Advertiser, denying that his father was the author of the Missouri Compromise. The Louisville Journal, after showing that if not its author, Mr. Clay was the mainstay of that measure, and always looked upon it as the one act of his life in which he felt most pride, says:

Mr. Clay was the author of a great many glorious things, and of only one that he had reason to be ashamed of—and that one is now in Congress.

COMMERCIAL.

Produce Market.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, MILWAUKEE, April 29, 1858.

Received by R. & N. W. R. R., April 28—295 bbls flour, 10,265 bus wheat, 1,415 bus oats, 173 bus potatoes, 800 bus corn, 225 bus rye, 5 bbls eggs, 3,470 lbs pork, 1,900 lbs hides, 400 lbs butter, 25 bus beans, 60 bus barley, 18,700 lbs sundries, 1 car cattle.

By Mil. & Wat. R. R.—273 bbls flour, 1,631 bus wheat, 127 bus barley, 45 bus oats, 18 bus corn, 282 bus potatoes, 5 bbls eggs, 5 head on die, 8 dressed hogs, 21,978 lbs sundries.

Receipts of grain, it will be seen, were comparatively large, yesterday, but there was no perceptible change in the produce market. Good samples of wheat meet ready sale at former prices. With large receipts, however, and in the face of a dull New York market, the present prices will hardly be maintained. We quote:

Wheat—In fair demand, at 85@87 for extra club. We note a sale, yesterday, of 599 bags choice club to mill at outside figures. There is also a moderate request for good No. 1 at 82@85c; sales of 258 bags at 85, and 461 bags at 84c; the latter was a fair sample. There is little demand for inferior qualities. Good samples of winter wheat are in fair request at 70@76 for red, and 75@85 for white.

Flour—Quiet and unchanged. Sales 250 bbls spring extras, f. o. b., at $5,50. Dealers say that there is a moderate request for winter wheat country brands, at $5,75@$4,25, and spring at $5@$5,25, to supply home trade.

Furnours—Low and dull. The only charter we heard of was the schooner Wm. Case at 4c for wheat to Buffalo. Vessel owners at Chicago are discharging their hands and laying up their craft for better times.

Rye—Scarce and in demand at 50@53c.

Barley—Receipts light and demand very limited, at 80@40c. The latter figures only paid for the choicest samples.

Oats—Receipts are increasing, and the demand continues brisk at 26@26½c on platform. Upwards of 13,000 bus were shipped yesterday.

Corn—Quiet, and receipts light; quoted at 30@33c in the ear and shelled.

Timothy Seed—Dull at $1,25.

Potatoes—Plenty and dull, at 25@33c for very best lots.

Eggs—Dito, at 7@8c by the barrel.

Butter—In firm request at 12½@15c for dirkin, from good to choice fresh packed, and 16@18c for fresh roll.

Hides—In good request, at 5@6 for green, and 10@12½ for dry.

The weather, yesterday, was pleasant, and the use of the sprinklers was necessary to keep down the dust. The roads throughout the State are in good condition, and the farmers, having got the larger portion of their crops in the ground, begin to rush in their grain.

NEW YORK MARKET.

New York, April 28

Flour—Market steady, with good demand, chiefly for home consumption; super state is very scarce, and a shade higher; sales 12,000 bbls at 4,25@4,30 for superfine western; 4,25@4,30 for common to medium extra western, and 4,75@5 for extra Wis. Canadian flour unchanged; sales 1,100 bbls at 4,30@4,35 for super, 4,45@5,40 for extra. Rye flour steady; sales 200 bbls at 3@3,50.

Wheat—Market dull and prices rule in favor of buyers—the quantity offering to arrive is large; sales 19,000 bus at 1,31@1,34 for red and white Ind and Ill, 1 for white Mich, 1,34@1,36 for white southern Chicago spring, and Milwaukee club at 93@95 to arrive.

Barley—Heavy at 60@65.

Corn—Light receipts supply and demand dull; sales 97,000 bus at 70@78 for white, 74@75 for yellow.

Oats—Dull and lower; sales at 46@48 for state, 48@49 for western.

Whiskey—Firmer; sales 400 bbls at 21¾.

Pork—Market easier; sales 800 bbls at 13,50 for mess, 17 for prime mess, 15,40@15,50 for prime.

Beef—Firmer; sales 400 bbls at 8@9,50 for country prime, 10,50@11,50 for do mess, 18@14 for repacked mess, 14,25@15 for extra mess.

Beef Hams—Quiet at 16@18.

Prime Mess Beef—Nominally 13@10½.

Cut Meats—Unchanged; sales 150 bbls at 7@7¾ for shoulders, 9@10 for hams.

Lard—Better; sales 2,000 bbls at 12, and 800 kegs at 13.

Carpet Bagging—Receipts 2,559 beaver, 541 cows, 406 vearls, 9,063 sheep and lambs, 699 swine. Beef in improved quality and do 3@3½@8 lb higher; sales at 5@11½; average 9½c—market closed with upward tendency.—Hides improving; corn fed 5¾@6¾. Other articles unchanged.

Stocks—Firmer at 2d board; 746 bds St. Hudson 80 mort 69¾, Harlem 9d mort 70¾, P M 73, 47¾, Erie 24¾, Hudson 30, Harlem 12, Reading 47¾, M & M 8¾, M S 24¾, C & R I 70¾, Lac & M 89.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, April 28.

Flour—Market dull and but little doing. Prices remain unchanged; 100 bbls Canadian sold yesterday at $5,50.

Wheat—Firm at 85c, with sales of lots at these figures.

Oats—Steady at 30@30¾ aboard.

Rye—Steady at 50@55c on track.

Barley—Dull at 55c.

Freights—Very dull. We quote wheat to Oswego at 8c. To Buffalo but 2½c was offered.—Journal of last evening.

NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINES
Latest Improvement—Watson's Patent.

THE MANUFACTURER and Agent desire to call the attention of the public to the cheapest labor saving machine, and now, since the great improvements which have been added to it, recommend it with the utmost confidence, as it has been in operation in this city a sufficient length of time to prove its utility. These machines are made strong and durable, and with one-fourth part of the care required to manage a higher priced machine, they will do as much work, and as well as the most expensive. Each machine is thoroughly tested before it is sold, and warranted to give satisfaction, if the instructions are followed with even an ordinary amount of care, and will be kept in order one year free of charge.

Price of improved machine, complete, (including stand) $25. Persons wishing to purchase a machine are invited to bring their work with them and test the machine to their entire satisfaction, before purchasing.

The Fort Snelling Case.

Washington, April 27.

The report of the majority on the Ft. Snelling case, is signed by Morrill, Pettit, and Morris, of Ill., and concludes with resolutions that the sale was without authority of Law: that the action of the Secretary of War was a grave official fault; that the provisions for the management of the sale were so carelessly and injudiciously made as to induce a combination against the Government to exclude all competition, and bring loss on the Government; that Jno. C. Mather in making the purchase acted in violation of his official duty as agent of the War Department for the examination and sale of the Fort Ripley Reservation and declaring the sale null and void.

The minority committee of Messrs. Burnett and Faulkner, say that there is not a word in the testimony casting the slightest imputation on the Secretary of War; that the sale was fairly effected in a proper manner; that considerations of military policy, no longer requiring that Fort Snelling should be retained as a post, and that the committee be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. The report of the committee was laid on the table.

Election of R. R. Directors.

Toledo, April 28.

The election of Directors for the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana railroad has been held to-day. About $60,000 shares of stock were voted on. The following persons received about forty-eight thousand votes, and were chosen, viz:

R. S. Burrows, Hiram Sibley, Edwin Litchfield, John S. Barry, Nelson Beardsley, Ransom Gardner, John C. Wright, Wm. Walcott, William B. Wells, Clarkson N. Potter, Ezekiel Morrison, J. H. Ransom, and Geo. Bliss.

The minority ticket consisted of Messrs. Jervis, Higgs, and others, who received less than 11,000 votes.

Geo. Bliss, of Springfield, Mass., was unanimously elected President of the Board.

Arrival of the Merrimac.

The U. S. frigate Merrimac arrived at Panama from Callao, April 19th.

A letter in the Daily News says Castillo's loss at the storming of Arequippa was 1300 killed and Vivanco's 600. The former had 2,000 wounded who are dying in great numbers and it was thought the remainder of his dead would reach 2,000. Castillo's whole force amounted to 4,500 and Vivanco's regular troops amounting to 1,600, besides which he had a great number of citizens enrolled.

Guarez the Fugitive.

New York, April 28.

A passenger on the Moses Taylor says, the John L. Stephens on her down trip put into Manzanilla, where she took on board Guarez, the fugitive President from Mexico, together with his Cabinet. On arriving at Aspinwall the whole party took passage for New Orleans, intending to proceed thence to Vera Cruz, which at last accounts, April 12th, still held out for the Guarez government.

Quebec Items.

Quebec, April 28.

The weather here is cloudy and cold, thermometer stands 40° above zero.

The ship Pride, of Canada, is ashore on Red Island, 90 miles below. The city steamers have gone to her assistance this morning.

Baltimore Scientific Association.

Baltimore, April 28.

The Scientific Association assembled at 11 o'clock in the Maryland Institute. About 100 members were present. In the absence of the President Alexis Caswell was called to the chair. Extensive arrangements are made for extending hospitalities to members by the citizens of Baltimore.

Arrested.

New York, April 28.

Wm. Fuller was arrested in this city yesterday, on a charge of forging a draft on the U. S. Government for $5,000. The draft is dated 1834, and purports to have been drawn in favor of a mail agent, and accepted by O. P. Brown, who was then Treasurer of the Post Office Department, both of which parties are now dead.—It is said five other drafts of a similar nature have been presented at various times to the Government for payment.

Survey of the Arrato River.

Washington, April 28.

Advices by the last steamer from Aspinwall, state that the expedition for the survey of the Arrato river, has been completely successful.—Lieut. Craven expected to sail with his party for New York on the 7th inst. Although much toil and privation had been undergone, all were in good health and spirits.

Court Martial.

Cincinnati, April 28.

In pursuance of an army order, issued by the Secretary of War, a court martial, summoned to pass upon the conduct of Gen. Twiggs, assembled this morning, at the Newport Barracks.

Gen. Wool proposed that the Judge advocate read the order calling the court, which was declined, as the court could not organize in consequence of the absence of Gen. Jessup. The court then adjourned.

Gen. Jessup is expected to-night.

Cotton Plant Injured by Frost.

Augusta Ga., April 27.

Private despatches from different portions of this State and Alabama, report a heavy frost last night, causing injury to the cotton plants.

Congressional.

Washington, April 28.

House.—Mr. Nichols, from the printing committee, reported a resolution to print 20,000 copies of the mechanical part of the patent office report of 1857—or 1,000 less than formerly. He remarked that a general distribution cannot be effected unless this system is carried to excess. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. English from the Post Office committee, reported a joint resolution, in effect that the Post Master General, Attorney General and Secretary of the Treasury make such arrangements for the accommodation of the Post Office, Custom House and U. S. Courts in Philadelphia, as shall best conduce to the public service. It prohibits any increase of the present appropriation, and authorizes the President to sell all of the buildings on the grounds which are not necessary for the public service.

Mr. Florence said the Philadelphia delegation had consulted with the Post Office Committee, and had come to the conclusion that this was the most feasible way to relieve the subject of difficulty.

One set of conditions is prescribed for the admission of a State under one constitution, and another set under all other constitutions. After the population of Kansas is sufficient to come in under the Lecompton Constitution, why should it not come in under any other constitution?—This measure would keep open and increase the quarrel and strife. If a fair election is held, it will be voted down, four to one. It cannot be otherwise. In the Northern States the question will turn on the issue whether one set of conditions shall be prescribed for a Territory applying for admission as a free State, and another set for a slave State.

This ordinance is a premium for a slave State, and he predicted that this issue will be distinctly before the northern people. Every man will be elected or defeated on this issue, and he should not be surprised if 125 out of 144 representatives, to which the north is entitled, should be sent here to repudiate this state of things.

Mr. Davis, of Md., said that so far as the admission or rejection was concerned, everything in law of language is conceded by this bill, but he had

The Bribe and the Threat.

The Albany Journal well says, "Among the many phases which the Lecompton Swindle has assumed, none has seemed to us more puerile and contemptible than that now pending. I offers the People of Kansas a Bribe of five millions of acres of Land if they will sanction the Lecompton Constitution; and threatens them with years of territorial pupilage if they refuse! This appeal to the cupidity of the People of that Territory is altogether worthy of those who are looking to the patronage of the General Government for the 'solid arguments' by which to consumate their scheme. As Bribery is potent at Washington, they cannot understand why it may not be equally potent in Kansas. 'Every man has his price,' is an old maxiom, which the Administration believes in. In this case, their argument is, 'If a $2000 Post Office, or a $4,500 Chargéship can buy up a member of Congress, why may not five million acres of land purchase a majority of fifteen thousand electors?' If this scheme is sanctioned at Washington, they will learn why.

There is not, we are confident, patronage enough, or money enough, or land enough at the disposal of the General Government to induce a majority of the People of Kansas to vote for the Lecompton Constitution. If they shall be insulted by a proffer of the Bribe, they will spurn it. And in so doing they will furnish the world now evidence of their already demonstrated integrity and patriotism.

Five millions of dry land is a golden bait.—Immense results could be effected by so magnificent a heritage. But, in the estimation of the heroic pioneers of Kansas, Land without Freedom is body without soul. The despicable demagogues who proffer them this Bribe will find that it will not have a feather's weight in the contest. If it shall have any influence whatever, it must be to augment the hatred with which the Lecompton Swindle is looked upon by the People of that Territory. It will never receive that sanction. To believe that it will, is to attribute to them an "easy virtue" which would render them deserving of the fate which the Administration seeks to fasten upon the entire negro race on the Continent.

As, in our opinion, this Bribe will fail to effect the result hoped for by the Administration, the Threat will be equally futile. One, two, or three years of Territorial pupilage for a people entitled to a full and immediate recognition as a State, may be mortifying and unust', but not intolerable. They can consent to remain, for a year or two, the residents of a Free Territory, but they will never consent to become the citizens of a Slave State.

The scheme is adroitly concocted; but it will fail. Its authors understand neither the character nor temper of the People. They are not the stuff that "Dough Face" Congressmen are made of; and if the insulting alternatives proposed are presented to them, they will have no more difficulty to choose between them than an honest man would have to decide between becoming a knave or remaining an honest man.

The chances are, however, that the test will be made. We have no fear of the issue. As the proposition is puerile and contemptible so will its repudiation be prompt and overwhelming."

The State Loan.

The select committee, to whom was referred the matter of changing the constitution so far as relates to the Governor's salary, and providing for a loan to finish the public buildings of the State, have substituted the following report to the Legislature:

Your committee are of the opinion that it would be economy on the part of the State to complete the public buildings of the same, sooner than can be done by levying an annual tax for that purpose, and that neither justice to ourselves, or those who are to have the use and benefit of them hereafter, require that the entire expense of construction should be borne by the present tax-payers of the State.

The committee are not in favor of contracting a debt so large that the annual interest would be oppressive, but report a bill for an amount sufficiently large, in their opinion, to complete the different institutions now under contract, and in course of erection, in a plain, yet substantial manner.

Your committee have no doubt that, a 6 per cent., loan for the amount reported by them could be negotiated at a premium, and that the whole would be used by the banks of this State as a basis for circulating notes.

The proposed amendment seems so fair and just, that your committee will enter into no lengthened argument in its support.

Respectfully submitted,

Z. P. MASON,
A. ALDEN,
HAY,
PRIOKETT,
WILLIAMS.

A BILL FOR AN ACT TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF WISCONSIN.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SEC. 1. That section six of article eight of the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, be so amended as to read as follows:

"For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures in erecting an asylum for the insane, enlarging or rebuilding the State Capitol, completing the State prison, house of refuge, asylum for the education of the deaf and dumb, and asylum for blind, the State may contract a public debt, but such debt, in the aggregate, hereafter created, shall not exceed the sum of seven hundred thousand dollars. Every such debt shall be authorized by law, for the purpose or purposes above enumerated, and the vote of a majority of all the members elected to each house, to be taken by yeas and nays, shall be necessary to the passage of such laws; and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and the principal within eighteen years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest, and such appropriation shall not be repealed, nor the taxes be postponed or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid."

SEC. 2. The proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, embraced in the first section of this act, shall be entered on the journals of the Senate and Assembly, with the ayes and noes taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election, and the Governor shall cause the same to be published in the official papers of the State.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

A GOLDEN PRIZE.—A monster nugget of gold has been found at Kingower, 130 miles from Melbourne, by four old California miners, named Robert and James Ambrose, and Samuel and Charles Naylor. It is 2 feet 4 inches in length, by 10 inches in width at its widest point, and 8 inches thick at one end and 4 inches thick at the other. Its weight is 146 lbs., or 1,748 oz. 18 dwts., and its value is about $34,860, American currency. The nugget was found in sand 13 feet below the surface. It is perfectly free from extraneous matter. The lucky owners are two pairs of brothers; one pair being English, and the other Boston boys. They have been four years in the diggings, and had quite a pile before striking the last prize. They have the nugget on exhibition, and intend to exhibit it in London and in the "States."

FIRST OF MAY.—This old fashioned institution with its attendant joys and sorrows, says an exchange is near at hand. We say joys and sorrows, for we insist upon it, in spite of the assertions of grumbling old cavillers, that there is joy in a regular old-fashioned, thorough-going house cleaning or moving. We can all remember, in the early spring-time of life, what fun there was on the first day of May, when, the house-hunting trips over, and the important family deliberations finished, it was concluded to move. Then there was a time among the youngsters. Up with the early dawn, anxious to begin the upheaval of domestic institutions, the rocking troop would begin with their own premises, and soon reduce all the trundle beds to a heap of fragments and a pile of bedding. Then came the toys, the most valuable furniture in the house, which must be safely stowed, to the inconvenience of everything else. Then the sleds and wagons, which were expected to find accommodations in the piano case, or the mahogany sideboard, and to take precedence of papa's rosewood dressing case, or mamma's papier mache work table. These safely disposed of, what a general pitching into everything that could be loosened, pulled apart, or accidentally broken, ensued. Carpets must be pulled up, and it was always more congenial to our temperament to pull away with a will, and either fetch the tacks out by the root, or tear the head through the carpet, the latter being the most popular method. Such old fogy ideas as the use of a claw wherewith to draw the nails were never favorably received. Then the immense exhibitions of strength displayed in tugging at big bureaus, and running the heavy sofas around on the rollers, and carrying great armefuls of books to the top of the stairs and suffering them to tumble helter-skelter down the whole flight—exhibitions of mischief, in dropping grandmother's worsted-worked ottomans out of the third story window, or of attaching her much cherished portrait of grampa to the bedcord, and lowering it away over the banisters of two pair of stairs, to the great detriment of the old gilt frame.

The work of pulling down, tearing up, and carrying out completed, with what exuberant spirits the band of unruly juveniles romped and laughed, and started to hear the strange echoes, and note the alternate sound which the bare walls give back. Another free, glorious, and unchided ride down the banister, repeated oft with merry laughter, another climb to the garret and another dive to the cellar to see that all is cleared out, and the party follow the dray loads of furniture, not without many vexatious difficulties, experienced in prevailing upon puss to go along. With what interest we watched the familiar furniture as it jolted over the rough pavement, and with what half-developed desire we wished that mamma's big rocking chair, perched in a tottling position on the very summuit of the load, might tumble off and roll away down upon the pavement to its inevitable demolition. We had often thought what a splendid pair of sled-runners the rockers would make.

We pass over the examination of the new house, the trial of the capacities of the banisters and the cellar door for sliding down, and the projects for a play house and a swing in the wood house; and quietly we will pass over the keen sorrow at the sudden recollection of some cherished plaything forgotten or irrecoverably lost. There are many bitter trials in life's journey, but we remember none so bitter as when once we awakened to the startling consciousness that we had left an invaluable three-shilling horse on the window sill in the old house, and that the new family had moved. Real genuine grief filled the cup of sorrow, and overflowed in torrents that no amount of plumb cake could stay. Childhood is the only time when nature displays itself undisguised. With years we grow hardened, and become indifferent to our own woes, as well as those of others.

Years pass away; childhood's laughing joys exist only in memory, and with that great disturber of mind, responsibility, comes the uninviting aspect of May-day. It is a weary day now, which was so full of enjoyment then. A vexing period, when all the world is excusable in losing its temper, and exposing itself to the public gaze without its store clothes on. When men will be ill-tempered, women cross, and draymen extortionate. When, in fact, nobody is accountable for their actions, and everybody is open to criticism.

DUFF GREEN ON LECOMPTON.—Duff Green, the war-horse of Southern Calhoun Democracy, is out in the States in denunciation of Lecompton Ho says:

Bishop Butler once said, "I was considering whether, as individuals go mad, whole nations may not also go mad;" and adds: "It will be seen that men may act en masse as much in contradiction to common sense, to common interests and experience, as if they were mistaking crowns of straw for crowns of jewels; and that millions of men may be as easily duped, cheated, and plundered, as the simplest dreamer of waking dreams, who takes counters for guineas, and cauvas for cloth of gold."

I am now an old man; I have seen much of the madness of party leaders, but I have seen nothing, in all my experience, which so forcibly illustrates the truth of this saying of Bishop Butler, as the proceedings of the South on the Kansas question. * * * Is there no member from the South who has the intelligence to see this question in its deformity, with the independence to speak, and the nerve to act, as a representative of an intelligent, patriotic, and honorable constituency should act, and, in his place, denounce the filthy thing.

Let one single high-toned Southern man, who feels that it will disgrace him, and his constituents, for him as their representative, to be a party to the frauds and violence which have become the matters now in issue in the Kansas question, rise in his place and denounce them, as an honorable man should do, and separate himself from the iniquity. If one such there be, he may save the South from utter disgrace.

SHIPMENT OF AMERICAN CARS FOR EGYPT.—The bark Champion, chartered by Messrs. Linder & Meyer, of India street, has been for several days past at the Worcester Railroad wharf, Sea street taking on board a number of cars manufactured to the order of the Viceroy of Egypt, to be used upon the railroad of that country.

The cars which these cars are from the establishment of the Messrs. Wasson of Springfield, and consist of four first and second class cars of the same pattern of those used in this country. They cost the former about $3,500 and the latter about $2,800 each. They are packed in compartments, and are to be put up in Egypt by workmen from this country. One vessel loaded with these cars has already sailed from New York, and two more are to sail from this port. We understand that the Messrs. Wasson have an order from the Viceroy for a sixteen-wheeled car for his own use, without limitation as to expense. It is also anticipated that upon the arrival of the first ship load of cars in Egypt, an order for an additional supply will be transmitted to this country.—Boston Traveller.

"NOT QUITE SO BAD."—The Bellefontaine Democrat tells a good story of Sam Pike, who had been down the river this spring on a raft.—Returning home, he stopped at a tavern, where quite a crowd was discussing the Kansas question. Sam had not slept the previous night, and was about squaring himself out for a comfortable snooze, when one of the loudest, turning to him said: "Here sits a Lecompton man, I'll bet the liquor for the room." "Done!" said his opponent, who was anti Lecompton. "Now, then, friend," said No. 1, "in order to decide this bet, will you be so kind as to tell whether you are a Lecompton man?" "What makes you think so?" Sam asked. "Because, sir, you look like one!" I can always tell them by their looks," replied No. 1. Sam answered, "Do I? Well, gentlemen, I was on a raft from Snow Shoe to Marietta; I have been drunk for two weeks, but I have no idea that I looked as hard as that." The Lecomptoner paid the liquor and sloped.

MONUMENT TO THOMAS H. BENTON.—At a meeting of the citizens of St. Louis, a few days since, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of Missouri's departed Statesman, the HON. THOMAS H. BENTON.

MILITARY ARDOR.—A Washington letter says: "The military ardor of our youth is prodigious, judging from the astonishing fact, which I learned at the War Department, that there are twelve hundred applications for a single lieutenency in the army, now vacant."

Funeral Services of Rev. Dudley A. Tyng—Addresses by Bishop McIlvaine, Messrs. Chambers, Newton, Jenkins and others.

The obsequies of the late Rev. Dudley A. Tyng took place Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, at the church of which he was the Rector—at the Church of the Covenant—Concert Hall, Chestnut street, above Twelfth, Philadelphia.

From noon until after 3 o'clock P. M., persons were arriving at the Hall, but no one was admitted except the relatives of the deceased, Ministers of the Gospel, members of the Young Men's Christian Association, (who attended in a body, wearing crape upon their arms) and members of Mr. Tyng's Church and Sunday School.

A short time before the appointed hour for the solemn services, the concourse had increased so that there were probably four or five thousand persons standing in Chestnut street about the doors—many of them being ladies. Within the Church was the largest audience which had ever assembled within its walls.

On the arrival of the corpse, it was placed just beneath the pulpit, upon a bier covered with black cloth. The pulpit and walls were also draped in mourning.

On the coffin was a silver plate containing the following inscription:—

BORN, JANUARY 14, 1825.
DIED, APRIL 19, 1858.
DUDLEY A. TYNG.

As the body was being carried up the aisle, the Right Rev. Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio, began the reading of the service of the Church, amid audible sobs from very many in the congregation. After which the 12th hymn,

"God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform"—

was sung by almost the entire congregation.

Bishop McIlvaine then delivered a most eloquent and affecting address, in which he eulogized the character of the deceased in high terms, speaking of his usefulness, his talents, his energy, his zeal for the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and his efforts toward union, and strong desires that the Church should be one in the love of Christ and of truth. He was peculiarly earnest in respect to the talents, energy, zeal and usefulness of the deceased.

The address of the Bishop occupied about twenty minutes.

The next address was delivered by Rev. John Chambers, of the Independent Presbyterian Church.

A beautiful and touching address was then delivered by Rev. John Jenkins, of the Calvary Presbyterian Church. Mr. Jenkins' remarks did not occupy more that ten minutes, but they were worthy of the occasion.

The next speaker was the Rev. J. Wheaton Smith, of the Baptist Church.

Rev. Dr. Newton, of the Episcopal Church, followed in a brief exortation, in which he made earnest, eloquent and touching allusions to the dying testimony of Mr. Tyng, when he gave such glorious assurance of his reliance on Christ our Savior.

Mr. Goddard next gave out the 189th hymn—

"Rock of Ages, clefts for me.
Let me hide myself in thee,
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side that flowed,
Be for sin a double cure."

which was sung with the deepest feeling.

The Burial Service was then concluded by Rev. Dr. Howe and Rev. Dr. Odenheimer of the Episcopal Church, and the Benediction was pronounced by Bishop McIlvaine.

The coffin was then taken out of the church by the front door, before the congregation left their seats. The Young Men's Christian Association then left the Church in a body, after which the remainder of the congregation dispersed.

The coffin was taken to St. Paul's Church, where it remained until Friday, when is was taken to Bergen, N. J., the place of interment, by the early train for New York.—Pennsylvania Inquirer.

New Island in the Pacific.

[From the Northampton, Mass., Gazette, April, 20]

We are permitted to make the following extracts from letters received in town from Mrs. Hiram Bingham, Jr., which we doubt not will be of interest to many of our readers:

The missionary packet Morning Star left Honolulu August 10, 1857, and arrived at Ascension Island September 23. We passed around and among various groups of islands, many of which appeared to be connected with each other by a white sand beach. From one island we perceived a boat approaching us, in which were four natives. They could not be induced to come on board our vessel, but Mr. Bingham wrote a letter, stating who and what we were, the name of the ship, its destination, and then presented the Gospel by the texts, and "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will toward men," and "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life." This was sent on shore thinking perchance some white person might be there that would gladly receive it.

September 8.—We came in full view of Strong's Island. The Star was towed in by five small boats, and it was truly pleasant to see the delight and joy which this message of peace gave to the Island. And then these missionaries have received no supplies or letters since January, 1856—therefore, you can imagine that we were gladly welcomed. Yet, as they said, God had not left them to actual want. The last of September we left this island to attend a general meeting at Ascension Island, when we were appointed to Narrel Apaia, of the Kingsmill group. This group comprises some 15 islands with 30,000 inhabitants at the lowest estimate. Our island is about 60 miles in circumference. We arrived here November 16, 1857, and were kindly received by the King, who urged us to remain with them, giving us permission to build our home wherever we pleased. Our home, which we procured at Honolulu, was so nearly finished that many moved our goods into it and took on first meal in our home on the 2nd of December, just one year from the day we sailed from Boston.

The cruising of the Morning Star has resulted in the discovery of an island not yet laid down on the maps, and has been named Anderson Island, in honor of Rev. Dr. Anderson, of Boston. The Star landed on the west side of the island, and 23 inhabitants were counted.

The Liabilities of Business Partners.

From the Boston Traveller.

For several days past there has been on trial in the Supreme Court, a case which involves the liabilities of business partners. It is a suit brought by Charles L. Hayward et al, brokers, of this city, to recover a note for $10,000 signed by defendants, on which $2,500 had been endorsed as paid in the form of a check upon the Grocer's Bank, signed by Mr. Kilborn for the firm. Upon this check which was never paid they also sue to recover. The defendants took the ground that the note was given by J. B. Kilborn, a member of the firm, and that the money was used by him not for the legitimate business of the firm, but without their knowledge, in his own private speculations. It will be remembered that Mr. Kilborn, who was the junior partner, after becoming deeply involved in consequence of his stock speculations, committed suicide. During the trial a variety of testimony was introduced, with the intention of showing that the defendants were, to some extent, at least, cognizant of the transactions of Mr. Kilborn.

It was testified to for the defendants that the checks were given by Kilborn in payment of stock transactions, and that the firm had never received the money, and it did not appear on their books. As to the bank check, the defendants held that the plaintiffs had not used due diligence in collecting it, they keeping it in their possession from the 5th to the 18th of November when the Grocer's Bank upon which it was drawn, failed.

In reply to this, it was stated that the check was kept back at the request of Kilborn. The plaintiffs testified that the $10,000 note was given for money to take up a loan at the Bank of North America; that Kilborn was well known as the active financial man of the firm, and had contracted other loans in their behalf which do not appear upon the books of the firm; in one case Mr. French having receipted for dividends upon shares of the Grocers' Bank which had been pledged for loans to Kilborn, but the transaction was not recorded upon their books.

The Court ruled that the plaintiffs should satisfy the jury that the checks were signed by an authorized member of the firm; he also ruled that all the members of the firm are bound by the acts of the individual partners thereof, if such acts are legitimate ones in connection with the business of the firm. When money is so obtained the firm is liable, even though an individual partner may afterwards misapply the money, unless it shall be shown that the parties advancing the money are cognizant of the intended misapplication. If a party advances money in good faith to one held forward as worthy of credit, those who thus bestow him, though equally the sufferers, must be held responsible.

The case was given to the jury Friday afternoon, and they remained out until one yesterday morning before agreeing upon a verdict. Upon the opening of the Court their sealed verdict was opened, and found to be in favor of the plaintiffs for $8,667.

In the matter of the check the jury disagreed, the dissenting jurors not being satisfied that the check was presented for payment with sufficient promptness.

Numerous similar cases where money was raised by Kilborn in the name of the firm, are yet to be tried.

An Intelligent Witness.

Not many years ago a criminal case was tried in an adjoining country, in which one Ben —— was a material witness for the State. The charge was that Foster made an attempt to kill one S with a four pound weight. Ben was a stout, strong man, with huge lungs, and not in the habit of refusing a social drink with a friend.—He was only a tolerably good-natured fellow when he had "a brick in his hat," and feasted on the details of a fisticuff with great relish.—Ben was called up by the State, and politely requested to tell all he knew about it. After squaring himself round a time or two, and adjusting his quid, he began in his peculiar nasal voice:—

"Well, we all went to the sale—there was a big crowd thar—some was drinkin and some wan't—I was, Judge, sortar so myself. Well, Noel Hales was thar trying to buy an old spotted sow that run close to him. Noel is a good feller, Judge, but he ain't smart; he went to Jackson once, and his daddy got out of sight, and he went about axing every man he met, 'Whar's daddy?'"——

"Go on, Mr. ——, tell us all about the fight."

"Well, as I was sayin', Noel wanted the sow, and was afeared he couldn't buy her without gittin' somebody to stand for him, and I told him of he'd make me sale I'd do it or die; and he said he'd pawn his gun, but hit was at Wingate's shop to be fixed. I told him, 'All right, Noel, hit shan't break squares with us, no how.' Well Noel he bid three dollars and a dime, or a quarter, and I can't say which; in the positive"——

"Go on, sir, if you please, about the fight."

"Well, give me time to bring it round right. Well, Noel didn't git the sow, because John Will bid more'n she was with. Well, then a cow was put up, and Foster bid ten dollars and a quarter, and she was knocked off to him. Foster said he only bid ten dollars, and S. said he bid ten and a quarter. They got to disputin', and I thought enough was said for a man to fight on, but Foster tuck it. They kept on jawerin', and at last S. told Foster he'd be —— if he'd scrupulate.—Foster said he'd be —— of he'd comboliosate from what he said. Well, about this time I felt dry, and went over to the doggery with several, and we all tuck a stiff drink. I tuck mine with sweetnin', Judge. Well, Noel Hales seemed hurt about not gittin' the sow, so I says, 'Noel, let's have some music to make us feel better.' So he, 'Ben, I know you are a friend to me, and of you'll git Abe Lard to play 'Cotten-eyed Joe,' I'll treat to half a pint.' Well, in this time we hearn the fuss over the way, and went out, and who should we see but S. lying down on the piezzer, and Foster as pale as skimmed milk.—Sez I, 'Men, let's have a fair fight.'" Some one said, 'Ben, they've already fit.'"

"Mr. ——, did you see the fight?"

"Well, I can't say as I did."

DEAD BODY FOUND.—The body of a man was found on Sunday morning last in Pike river, about twenty rods below the railroad bridge.—A Coroner's inquest was held on Monday afternoon; verdict rendered by the Jury, accidental drowning. The body had the appearance of having been in the water some weeks; had on a black broadcloth coat, mixed colored pants, fine calf boots. Age apparently about 35 years. A man answering the description of the body found, stopped at the house of Mr. Peck on the Racine road on the night of the 15th of March last, who appeared to be partially deranged; he represented himself to be a Frenchman; said he was going to New York to be married; after which he intended to embark for Paris. He said moreover, it was his fixed purpose to assassinate the Emperor Napoleon.—Kenosha Tribune & Telegraph.

THE KING OF PRUSSIA IN THE ST. LOUIS COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Frederick William, king of Prussia, several years since brought a suit in the Common Pleas Court of St. Louis, for the recovery of eleven thousand thalers from the estate of F. W. Knepper, deceased. The Court holding that a foreign power could not sue in a State Court, dismissed the suit, but this decision was set aside and the case remanded by the Supreme Court. On Wednesday, it was at length concluded by a judgment for the Prussian king, awarding him $6,452.

Knepper was a Postmaster at Walmelskerchen, in Prussia, and on or about the 10th of April, 1849, absconded—as is alleged—with moneys entrusted to the Government and in his hands. The king refunded to the private losers the sums they respectively lost, and has at length obtained a verdict for his remuneration.

FIFTY GREAT CURES are known to have been made in Washington within two weeks past, and in Baltimore at least one hundred, besides hundreds relieved of Corns, Toothache, Felons, and more trifling pains and aches. In Bridgetown, N. J., in Harrisburg and Wilmington, and also from Cleveland, Ohio, indeed everywhere it has been introduced the report is wonderful.—All say it beats everything ever tried to take out pain, and to thoroughly remove from the system both Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Swellings, Sores, Abrains, Wounds, Cuts, Burns, and to cure Palpitation and partial Paralysis. It will do it in ninety-nine cases in every hundred, if used according to directions; and it is pleasant, does not smart, nor interfere with any food, nor other medicine.

The greatest natural ornament to the human form is unquestionably a fine, luxuriant, healthy growth of hair. It has been so estimated in all ages of the world, and among all nations, savage and civilized. Hence, the Indian brave regards the scalp of his enemy as his greatest trophy. For a similar reason the fashionable belle often disputes the reign of vanity, as well as her other phrenological organs with borrowed locks

He who should discover a mode of preventing the hair from showing the inroads of envious Time by turning prematurely gray, a method by which it could be restored when falling off or turning white, and a way of promoting its luxuriant growth, would be justly entitled to rank among the benefactors of the human race. Read the testimonials in another column of the wonderful not to say almost miraculous effects of "Professor Wood's Hair Restorative," and see if he has not accomplished all this.—Capital City Fact.

But would thy life would ever run
As sunwardly as now.

I know that I have knelt too lowly,
For smiles so oft withdrawn—
That trusting love received too slowly
The lesson of thy scorn.

That then hast had thy triumph hour
Unquiet smile and complete,
When prompted by a spell of power,
I knelt me at thy feet.

'Tis over now—thy charm is broken,
The feverish dream hath fled;
And passed away like words unspoken
The vows that I have said.

I give thee back thy plighted word;
Its tone of love shall be
Like music by the slumberer heard,
A dreamer's melody.

Go, now—the light of hope upon thee;
Thy lover's claims are o'er;
A thousand smiles the charms have won thee,
They'll win a thousand more.

For beauty hath a charmed spell
Upon the human will;
Though pride the thought may ill veils so well,
It hath its homage still.

Go, blue-eyed girl; the proud shall meet thee,
And gladden in thy smile,
And flattery's pleasant lip shall greet thee,
With the bland words of guile.

Go, try the recklessness of earth,
With that young heart of thine;
And lavish its unwasted mirth
On pleasure's every shrine.

Thy pleasure path may yet be shaded,
A shadow cross thy sun;
The rosy wreaths which love hath braided
Fall from thee one by one.

The flatterer's vows may pass away,
The lyre of love be broken,
And mankind's evil report repay
The fondness thou hast spoken.

Go, heartless girl—thou'lt smile to-morrow,
A I had never been;
And spurn thy lover's words of sorrow,
For those of happier men.

A darker destiny the page
Of coming years may tell;
God help thee in thy pilgrimage,
Loved being—for thou'rt well.

A New Dodge and a Successful One.

From the New York News.

A new way to pay a new debt was discovered a few days since, which, as the consequences attending it were not of the most agreeable kind to one of the parties concerned, it may be well that the public should know something of the modus operandi, and individuals be warned against a similar liquidation of claims.

A gentlemanly-looking person called one day the early part of the present week at a fashionable boarding house in Eighth street (Clinton Place,) to look at rooms, learn the cost of boarding, and to make such general inquiries as those seeking the "comforts of a home" usually do,—The appearance of things was satisfactory, and the excellent landlady had every prospect of securing a valuable addition to her family. The bargain, however, was not quite consummated, and the applicant, as is frequently the case, we believe, promised to call on the morrow and complete the arrangements.

He called as he had promised, with an upholsterer to measure for carpets, curtains, &c.—gave directions how to place the furniture which would soon be along—how to lay the carpet without cutting, it being an expensive one—how to arrange the curtains, and how all things were to be disposed of to the best advantage, for securing his comfort and enjoyment.

Much of this necessary conversation was carried on near the parlor door, and at times in the hall—so that he had most of the time his eye on the outer door.

At length the door bell rang—a man with a package was admitted, whom the new boarder seemed rather pleased to see. He was carelessly invited into the parlor, just as any other owner of a fine house would do, and the man was asked if he had the bill. The package was laid upon the table—the bill presented to the gentleman of the house, who examined it, found it all right, counted out $400 and paid it, put the receipted bill in his pocket—and the man, plus $400, left. The gentleman, after giving some further directions about his baggage, which would soon arrive, left also, and has not yet returned—neither has his furniture, baggage, &c., been received at the house; but a second call was made by the young man, (who proved to be a clerk in a jewelry store,) with several policemen, who were exceedingly anxious to find the gentlemanly occupant of the house, as they supposed him to be, but of course met with no success.

The history of the affair was this:—The gentleman seeking board was a counterfeiter, or passer of counterfeit bills. He had purchased $400 worth of watches; had them sent to this house, to arrive at a certain hour, which of course was duly complied with; and the bill presented was paid with eight nicely engraved, handsome looking $50 bogus bank notes, which discovery was made after the clerk had reached the store of his employers—thus giving the gentleman seeking board a good start in the race.

This was altogether a shrewd operation, and one by which most any person would be likely to be imposed upon.

EARTHQUAKE AT CORINTH.—A shock of earthquake was felt at Athens, Greece, on Sunday, the 21st of February. No damage, however, was done. On the following day the affecting news arrived that nearly the whole town of Corinth had been destroyed by the earthquake. An English paper has the following account of the terrible calamity:

On Sunday, February 21, about 11 o'clock at night, Corinth was visited with an earthquake that destroyed nearly every house in the city, and was further awioted by the outbreak of fire, which consumed a large amount of property.—The shock of the earthquake was felt in all the surrounding villages. Kalimachi, the place of embarkation for Athens, has suffered in a like manner, as well as places of less note situated on the road to Argos. Eighteen persons lost their lives, and about sixty were wounded, a greater number than suffered on former similiar occasions. This event has involved the inhabitants in much distress. The Central Goverment has sent tents to the unfortunate victims of this calamity, and also rendered them pecuniary assistance, but there is reason to fear many will perish from cold and hunger. The pillars of the temple of Minerva Colisiaca have been injured. This was one of the earliest specimens of Doric architecture in Greece. One was split from top to bottom, and others defaced. The duration of the shock was nine seconds, and its first movement was in a vertical and then in a horizontal direction. Its centre seems to have been at the Isthmus, extending north and south and then east and west. Neither Costizza nor Lutraki have suffered.

AFFLICTIONS.—God schooleth and nurtureth His people, that through many tribulations they may enter into their rest. Frankincense, when it is put into the fire, giveth the greater perfume; spice, if it be pounded, smelleth the sweeter; the earth, when it is torn up with the plow, after frost, and snow, and winter storms, springeth the ranker; the nigher the vine is pruned to the stock, the greater grape it yieldeth; the grape, when it is most pressed and beaten, maketh the sweeter wine; fine gold is the better when it is cast in the fire; rough stones, with howing, are squared and made fit for building; cloth is rent and cut, that it may be made a garment; linen is washed, and wrung, and beaten, and is the fairer. These are familiar examples to show the benefit and commodity which the children of God receive by persecution. By it God washeth and scoureth his congregation. "We rejoice," saith St. Paul, "in tribulations; knowing that tribulations bring forth patience; and patience experience, and experience hope; and hope maketh not ashamed." The power of God is made perfect in weakness, and all things turn unto good to them that fear the Lord.

RIVER THIEVES.—Recent arrests by Sheriff's White of Brown county and Everts of this county have developed the fact that last summer there was an organized gang of River Thieves who plundered the Boats, Docks and Warehouses from Fond du Lac to Green Bay, of goods and baggage whenever the opportunity offered. The authorities are on the qui vive for more of the rogues; and no effort will be spared to break up the gang and bring the rascals to justice.—Appleton Crescent.

MEDICAL.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL!

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Coughs, Colds and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, Mass., Dec. 20th, 1855.
Dr. J. C. AYER—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EDEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of Utica, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a fast sold I should scorn pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

FRANKLIN, Miss., Feb. 7, 1858.
MESSRS. AYER:—I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the deep diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.
HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

JAMES LEE, Esq., Monterey, Ia., writes 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral, by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies a rare poor made friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa., Feb. 4, 1856.
SIR:—Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.
HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this, remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ONE DOLLAR WILL BUY

ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY that acts as a Cathartic, cleanses and purifies the natural thus any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to effect the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be given when it is known that one mouthful of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel—without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely or failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is excited to action.

HEADACHE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.

SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects all acidity and sourness of the stomach.

For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating hastily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor induced us to try it, and now convictionis certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the second bottle is taken; and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we wish to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this the greatest remedy in the world.—State Flag.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its remedial virtues.

There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as Dr. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

A RETIRED PHYSICIAN,

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE, whose sands of life have nearly run out, discovered, while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him, when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. Wishing to do as much good as possible, he will send to such of his afflicted fellow-beings as request it, the recipe, with full and explicit directions for making it up, and successfully using it.—He requires each applicant to inclose him one shilling—three cents to be returned as postage on the recipe, and the remainder to be applied to the payment of this advertisement.

DYSPEPSIA AND FITS.

DR. TRACY DELORME,
THE Great Curer of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted by Dyspepsia, that for part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given by a mere child, while in a state of trance, has cured everybody who has taken it, never having failed once. It is equally as sure in cases of Fits and Dyspepsia. The ingredients may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. GRAIN CLEANER & SEPARATOR

HORTON'S PATENT

G. B. BINGHAM'S BRO.,
Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.

THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfections as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into this State. It is fire proof, reliable to get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the scouring cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We respectfully invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis.

VOLUME XV. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 29, 1858. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Close of the Stout Trial.

From the Rochester Union.

ROCHESTER, April 24.

This morning, at half past eight o'clock, our citizens began to pour into the lobbies of the House, and in a few moments they were densely crowded. At nine o'clock the doors were opened, and the throng rushed into the Court Room. The jam was tremendous, and the officers had all they could do to save life and limb. The prisoner was brought in at half past nine o'clock. He did not appear to be at all concerned, as far as outward appearance showed.—He shook hands with Mr. Cutting, one of his counsel. After a short time the prisoner engaged in discussion with Mr. Perry and some of the officers.

Judge Wells came into Court at twenty minutes past ten o'clock and took his seat.

THE SENTENCE.

The Court having been opened, the District Attorney rose and said: If the Court please, I now move that the sentence of the law be passed upon the defendant at the bar.

The Clerk of the Court then said: Hear ye, hear ye, hear ye. All manner of persons are commanded to keep silence while judgment is given against the prisoner at the bar, upon pain of imprisonment.

The Judge—Ira Stout, stand up. [The prisoner arose.] You stand convicted of the crime of murder—the murder of Charles W. Littles.—Have you anything to say before the judgment of the law is pronounced upon you?

The Prisoner—Nothing to say, sir. Too much has been already said.

Judge Wells then proceeded to sentence the prisoner. His remarks were eminently fitted for the solemn occasion. He closed by saying:

It remains only for the Court to pronounce the sentence of the law upon you, which is that you be taken to the place from which you last came, and on the 18th day of June next, you be taken to the place of execution, and on that day between the hours of 12 o'clock, at noon, and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, you be hanged by the neck until you shall be dead, and may God have mercy on your soul.

THE CASE OF SARAH LITTLES.

As soon as the verdict of murder was announced against Ira Stout, the attention of the public was directed at once to his sister, Mrs. Littles, who was jointly indicted with him, and upon whom the same testimony that has justly convicted him bears with crushing weight.

It was rumored that her counsel had advised her to offer a plea of manslaughter in the second degree, and throw herself upon the mercy of the Court for a sentence to the State Prison. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the Court room was again filled to overflowing by all ages and sexes, eager to catch a glimpse of the unfortunate woman who was expected to be brought there.

There was nothing done in Court before three o'clock in a public way. Nor was the crowd gratified by an exhibition of the prisoner.

It is understood that Mr. Perry, counsel for Mrs. Littles, offered to put in a plea of manslaughter in the second degree.

It is understood that the Court declined such a plea, but intimated that a plea of manslaughter in the first degree would be accepted. As we go to press, her counsel has gone to the jail to consult with her about it.

P. S.—Mrs. Littles declines to enter the plea, and prefers to be tried by a jury.

THE MESSRS. HARPER.—When in October last, this great publishing House bowed its head to the blast, which Panic and bad management in our fiscal affairs rendered a perfect Hurricane, one universal feeling of astonishment and regret pervaded the country—for it is safer to say that this, the largest publication house in America, was more extensively known than any other firm. Nobody doubted their solvency; nay, nobody questioned the accuracy of their statements, showing a surplus of a million and a half, independent of the wealth of the individual members of the firm, separate and apart from their business. But cash—gold or silver—and not real estate, bonds and mortgages and good paper, was what the crisis demanded, and this they could not command. They therefore suspended, and the public wondered and lamented. That same public will now rejoice to learn, as we do, that the day of suspension has passed, and that the time honored firm of Harper & Brothers, has again resumed the regular payment of all their liabilities.

We have known for months, that they were virtually paying everything; and, therefore, were not surprised at receiving from them yesterday, the following brief note:

To General Webb:—

Dear Sir:—The Manhattan Company will pay our note on presentation. They have directions to pay everything of ours as it matures. [Yours, truly, HARPER & BROTHERS.

New York, April 23.

We cannot refrain from tendering to this well known, and much respected firm, our congratulations upon this event. They have become, as it were, one of the institutions of the country, and everywhere, their resumption of payments will be hailed with unmingled satisfaction, just in proportion to the feeling of sincere regret which was everywhere evinced by their suspension.—N. Y. Courier, April 24.

SUSCEPTIBILITY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.—The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Exchange writes:

One thing I may mention. Since the breaking up of the "bogus lottery concerns" in Norwich, Connecticut, there have been returned to the dead letter office in this city a very large number of letters, directed to those firms. The sums contained in these letters amount, in the aggregate, to some $25,000 or $30,000. It is truly amazing to know how susceptible of imposition the American people are. There have been likewise returned to the dead letter office a great quantity of letters addressed to a fictitious firm in New York, which advertised a medicine designed to prevent conception. The firm was broken up by the police, and the letters have been sent here.

THE MEDAL OF ST. HELENA.—The well-known Professor Mollinari, of Albany, has received from Louis Napoleon a bronze medal, in accordance with a decree of the Emperor in 1854, instituting an Order called the Medal of St. Helena. It is given only to those who served in the Grand Army under the immediate command of the Emperor, and the fulfillment of the will of Napoleon the First, who bequeathed a sum of money for this purpose. As a token, "a ses compagnons de gloire, ses derniers pensees." It bears date "St. Helene, 5 Mari, 1821."

P. B. BOICE, Jr., } Boston.
O. N. CHAPIN, No. 86 Quay Street, Albany.
——— Troy.

No transhipments in Albany or Troy.

In consequence of the great reduction of tolls on the Erie Canal, and increased facilities of the same, this company will transport all kinds of produce and merchandize to and from New York, Boston, Albany and Troy this season at less rates than any previous season. In case of any damages or losses the same will be settled on the point of destination.

Having taken the agency of the above Company at this city, I would solicit a call from the friends and former patrons of the Company, also my own friends, before making any arrangements or agreements elsewhere.

Mark Packages A. T. A. Co., and ship at Pier 7, East River New York, on the boats of the Company.
